Socratic Questions

Thoughts are like a running dialogue in your brain. They come and go fast. So fast, in fact, that we rarely have the time to question them. Because our thoughts determine how we feel, and how we act, it's important to challenge any thoughts that cause us harm.

Spend a moment thinking about each of the following questions, and record thorough responses. Elaborate, and explain "why" or "why not" in your responses.

Thought to be questioned:
Thought to be queened.
What is the evidence for this thought? Against it?
Am I basing this thought on facts, or on feelings?
Is this thought black and white, when reality is more complicated?
Could I be misinterpreting the evidence? Am I making any assumptions?
